[Continued from First Page.] ton, should be above such puerfitties, should not descend to the level of the jester, and attempt to make sport over the casketed remains of a wife or mother, ere the eye of the husband or the orphan has regained its histre. We feel confident that it could not have been done with any intention of casting disrespect upon the dead, but was inserted thoughtlessly by its editors who have foes enough to meet on the greensward, without descending beneath the dasies for objects against whom to hurl their darts.

[From the Griffin (Ga.) Daily News, July #2.] The "red-hottest" paper we have seen for a long while, is one bearing the above hame, published at Lexington, Mo. It is a stunner, and we are anxious to exchange with it. It ought to have a circulation of ten million! It calls corruption, thieving, rascally, villainy and the devil's doings generally, by the right names. It is independent, live and progressive, and devoted heart and soul to the weltare and interests of the South. It ought to have five hundred subscribers at Griffin, for it would be elegant Sunday reading. We publish a few of its red-not paragraphs to show of what metal it is made:

AT THE THE LEXINGTON CAUCASIAN.

[From the Mexico (Mo ) Messenger,-Rad,-July 18.] We don't get Donan's Caucasian as a regular exchange. It would be too strong diet; we couldn't stand it. But when Pat. her anything particularly good in it that he knows we wish to see, such as were his attacks last week on "Sile Woodson' and "Missouri's Disgrace," he sends us a copy. Its rich reading at times. We feel a little like taking Sile's part in this contest, and are not yet prepart in this contest, and are not yet pre-pared to believe our Governor so bad a man as the Caucasian would seem to make him. Let brotherly love continue!

[From the Huntaville (Mo.) Citisen, July 17.] The Lexington Caucasian makes the following gratifying exhibit of the condition and extent of the wheat crop in .Lafayette county, and couples the statement with some timely and judicious advice—advice which, if heeded, will be as profitable to our own resders as to those of the Caucasian. Hence, we reprint the whole article.

[From the New Orleans (La.) Herald, July 12.] DONANISMS. The Lexington (Mo.) Caucasian—the great North Américan white man's paper, which is, perhaps, the "red-hottest" journal published in this misgoverned world—gets up the following local squibs:

We want to ascertain where Col. P. Donan, of the Lexington Caucasian, got his learning, out of what dictionary he got so many jaw-breaking words, and from what foundry he got such a quantity of brass.

SILE WOODSON.

What a Journal at the State Capital Has to Say.

This Democratic Administration the Most Dismal Failure ever Known."

[From Jefferson City State Journal, July 18.] not taken into account in these observations, and the worthy state officials known as "Liberals" will consider that we mean no invidious distinctions as against them.
We speak of the part of the administration known as Democratic, and we say that the officers above referred to are its re-demption from complete disgrace and failure. They are each earnest and faith-ful officers doing their utmost to serve and ful officers doing their utmost to serve and protect the interests of the state. Without reflecting any discredit upon their predecessors, we candidly say that the state was never honored with more faithful and vigilant officers than they. It is only by the most strengous efforts that Treasurer Salmon is able to save the warrants of the state from protest. The only by the most strengous efforts that Treasurer Salmon is able to save the warrants of the state from protest. The payment of the interest and maturing bonds he has provided for by a Herculean effort, so that in New York our credit is safe so far as greenbacks can make it so. But to provide tor current expenses he finds much difficulty. On one or two occasions lately for a day or so, he has been unable to pay as small a sum as a forty dollar warrant. But after digging around he would finally succeed in raising something, when the "wheeks of office" again moved. Not as a matter of necessity for the credit of the Treasury alone, but as a duty to the people of the state have the Auto to the people of ury alone, but as a duty to the people of the state, have the Auditor and Treasurer the state, have the Auditor and Treasurer been compelled to resort to the extreme alternative of proceeding by process against a number of delinquent collectors, to compel them and their securities to pay up. On Tuesday last process was commenced against Thomas J. Flint, late Collector of Daviess county, for $8,926.51, and a penalty of ten per cent. per month for the time it has been due, making in all about $14,000. This suit is only a beginning; others are soon to follow. Proall about $14,000. This suit is only a beginning; others are soon to follow. Proceedings have also been revived against the officers delinquent under former administrations. The determination is to bring into the Treasury all its outstanding dues. To the officers of the Treasury belong the credit of looking after another very important matter which has heretofore been neglected. The money arising from fines, forfeitures and penalties, by Sec. 6, Art. 9 of the Constitution, belongs to the achool fund. Until a short time ago, not a cent of this money ever time ago, not a cent of this money ever found its way into the Treasury. Evident-ly from the reports which come in, a large portion of it has found a lodgment in the sheriffs' pockets. BIZ IS BIZ.

Caucasian Common-Sense Platform Endorsed

[From the Las Vegas (New Mexico) Gazette, July 12.] It gives us pleasure to notice that various newspapers in the East have adopted our plan of carrying on business. The Carrollton, Mo., Journal, of June 27, has the identical plank which we adopted from the start. Hear it: "All personal or political notices, for the promotion of individual interests, fortunes or ambitions, are chargeable: free puffs have talked. are chargeable; free puffs have 'played out.' This was agreed upon by the Editorial Association of Missouri, and we propose living up to it.'' Why don't the New Mexican Editors meet too and adopt this as their platform.
